

Your health information is collected and protected under Alberta's Health
Information Act.

Carewest respects your confidentiality and privacy. Your information is collected, used, disclosed and protected according to provincial and federal legislation.

Your health information is collected by Carewest in accordance with section 20 of the Health Information Act (HIA). The health information collected will depend on the services provided to you, and may include your name, date of birth, health care number, address, health history, and any other information needed to provide the health services you require. The purpose of this collection is primarily for:

- Providing health services;
- Determining eligibility for health services;
- Processing payments for health services;
- Conducting research;
- Providing for health services provider education; and
- Internal management purposes.

Information will be collected directly from you, except in circumstances where we are authorized by the HIA to indirectly collect it. Your health information will only be used within AHS and disclosed outside of AHS as allowed by the HIA.

The HIA gives you the right to access your health information.
